Professor Dr. Hossam Mohamed K
President
Cairo University

Dear Dr. Mahmoud:

The Embassy of the United States of America is pleased to announce that it is currently accepting applications for the Near East and South Asia Undergraduate Exchange Program (NESA UGRAD). NESA UGRAD is a program of the United States Department of State. It provides opportunities for final year secondary school, first-, second-, and third-year undergraduate students from the Middle East, North Africa, and South Asia to study full-time for one academic year in a non-degree program in the United States. Mandatory courses will include U.S. study courses, academic skills training, and courses of students’ fields of study. Participants will take part in community service as well as an internship.

Attached, please find a description of the program, application instructions, and schedule for TOEFL ITP at AMIDEAST (also available on-line on our website: http://egypt.usembassy.gov/pa/xchgs.html)

The deadline for receiving complete applications is February 5, 2012

For further details/information about the NESA UGRAD program, please contact the Embassy’s Public Affairs Section at: CairoNESA@state.gov

To receive future similar announcements more quickly, please e-mail the Public Affairs Section at ExchangesCairo@state.gov and share with us an e-mail address that we can use to inform your distinguished university of upcoming exchanges opportunities for students and professionals.

Warm Regards,

Andrew Mitchell
First Secretary & Cultural Affairs Officer
Institutional Testing Program (ITP)

TOEFL® ITP consists of previously administered TOEFL paper-based tests. It evaluates nonnative English speakers' skills in three areas, for academic purposes:

- Listening Comprehension — measures the ability to understand English, including short and long conversations and short talks or lectures
- Structure and Written Expression — measures the ability to recognize standard written English
- Reading — measures the ability to read and understand short passages at the university level

TOEFL ITP - 2 Hours
